Kirk merchandise

A range of items can be purchased via the website Shop and in Kirkcudbright from Thomsons (St Cuthbert Street) and the Visitors Centre by the Harbour Square.

The Kirk was the venue for a Chinese New Year / Burns Night celebration and looked fantastically festive when it was decorated.

Over the summer a couple of weddings are taking place at the Kirk. In addition, there are plans for some exciting public events and details will be sent out nearer the time.

Please contact us via mail@kirkandrews.org.uk if you would be interested in holding an event at the Kirk.

Car Parking

Kirkandrews Kirk does not have any dedicated parking spaces. However, there is a lay-by on the approach to the Kirk, on the left hand side. There is also space for 2-3 cars immediately opposite the Kirk. Diagonally across from the Kirk is the parking area for Knockkenoch Cottages. There is usually space to turn here. There is no turning beyond this point.

Please respect the privacy of the local residents and do not use their driveways for turning. Please also note that the driveway immediately beyond and behind the Kirk is private access to Milnecroft only and should not be used for visiting the Kirk.

There are directions to the Kirk on the website <https://www.kirkandrews.org.uk/>

Kirk Opening

The Kirk will be open on Sundays from 31 March to 29 September from 2:00pm to 4:00pm. A trustee will be on hand to welcome visitors. In July and August local clergy will lead Sunday evening services at the Kirk.

Trustees

If you, or anyone you know, would be interested in joining the team of Trustees, please contact Anna Hale (Secretary) by email at mail@kirkandrews.org.uk. There are regular meetings through the year and trustees are on hand when the Kirk is open to visitors. Many hands make light work and it is rewarding to help to keep this special building in working order.

Toilet facilities

The decision has been made to purchase a portaloo for permanent installation opposite the Kirk. This will be for the use of those attending events at the Kirk.
